DRAFT MEASURE, CALLING UP MEN 21 THROUGH 35, NEARS FINAL APPROVAL

CONFEREES CUT 60-DAY DELAY OUT OF ISSUE

First Induction To Service May Be Scheduled For November 7 To 15

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12 — The final form of the nation's first peace-time conscription bill, subjecting 16,500,000 men from 21 through 35 to military service, was laid before congress today, with leaders seeking passage by Friday or Saturday night.

In spite of a threatened last-ditch fight by its most bitter foes, the measure is expected to be placed on President Roosevelt's desk for signature next Monday.

First induction into service, army officials said, probably will be between November 7 and 15.

The bill was whipped into final shape by senate and house conference committees named to adjust differences between the draft bills passed by the two bodies. Compromises were effected before the final agreement was reached last night.

The conferees scrapped the Fish Amendment, which postponed a draft call for 60 days to await results of a special call for volunteers, although the amendment had been defeated in the senate by only two votes, and approved in the house by seven. Supporters of the amendment indicated that they may stage a battle in an effort to reverse the conference committee and force inclusion of this provision.

Clark Abandons Hope

Some leading foes of the draft, however, conceded defeat. These included Sen. Clark (D) Mo. "There's nothing you can do but vote for or against it," said Clark, resignedly.

Outstanding provisions of the final bill are:

Male citizens between ages of 21 and 35, inclusive, and aliens who have declared their intention of becoming citizens, must register.

The bill authorizes calling of 900,000 men for one year's training and service. They then would be retired from active service, but would remain subject to call for 10 years, with some exceptions.

Draftees can be sent to Western Hemisphere nations, their island possessions and the Philippines.

Modified conscription of industry provision included, under which the President, after declaration (Continued on Page Eight)

Army In Action To House Conscripts

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12—The Army, moving swiftly after it revealed that it would undertake a $70,000,000 camp expansion program to accommodate conscripts, today awarded $18,000,000 worth of contracts, including a $5,140,122 award for building a tent-camp and utilities at Camp Savannah, Ga.

The Savannah contract went to the J. B. McCary Engineering Corp., the A. K. Adams and Co., and W. C. Sheppard, all of Atlanta, Ga.

Rotary Club Entertains Grid Squad

47 Boys, Coaches And Faculty Manager Guests; Black Promises Good Game

Forty-seven members of the Circleville football squad were guests of the Rotary Club at the regular Rotary luncheon Thursday in American Hotel Hurricane. With the squad were Coach Roy Black, Assistant Coach Thomas Armstrong and Faculty Manager Virgil Cress.

Coach Black told Rotarians that his squad was grateful for the opportunity of meeting with the club and that although his team still needed much practice, he felt that it would give Holy Rosary of Columbus a good game Friday night.

Special speakers on the program were Frank Lynch, Tom Gilliland and the Rev. Robert Kelsey. All three urged the team to stick to training rules and cooperate with the coach to bring about a successful season.

Athletes and school officials who registered included Eugene Hampp, Charles Kochensparger, Charles Zaenglein, Don Sowers, Joe Staley, Norman Anderson, Carl Eby, Nolan Sims, John Woods, Lloyd Jones, Jr., Robert Brown, John Sabine, Robert Kline, Bob Moon, Earl Bach, Bill Kochensparger, James Callihan, Richard Brintlinger, David Yates, manager, Edwin Richardson, Jack Hatz, Jack Crawford, Robert Valentine, Jim Moorehead, Don Valentine, Jack Moats, David Orr, manager, Don Wells, Frank Webb, Jr., Glenn Pearce, Dudley Smallwood, Russell Liston, Frank Geib, Virgil Wolfe, Clark Martin, Jack Beck, Marvin Jenkins, George Helwage, manager, Harry Clifton, Earl Wallace, David Mader, John Boggs, Leo Morgan, Raymond Haley, Coaches Roy M. ARRIVAL OF TWO VICHY ATTACHES CAUSES CONCERN

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12 — State Department and French and Panamanian diplomatic officials declared today that there is no significance in the arrival and presence in Panama of two French military and navy officials, representatives of the Vichy government.

The two French officials, Lieut. Jean Artur, assistant naval attaché, and Maj. Francois Ruellan, military attaché, are regularly stationed in New York and Caracas, Venezuela, respectively, and are in Panama only temporarily.

The French embassy said that Artur is visiting Panama regarding shipping matters and that Ruellan regularly makes trips through the Central American region.

Neither man, said the embassy, will remain in Panama more than a few days.

BAR TURNS DOWN VAN ZANDT SAYS BILL TO LIMIT 2,200 AIRPLANES SENT TO ALLIES OFFICE TENURE

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 12 — The American Bar Association today rejected an anti-third term resolution calling for a constitutional amendment limiting tenure of the presidency of the United States to one period of six years.

This and other resolutions dealing with the same subject were tabled by the association at an assembly of all delegates to its 63rd annual convention. The vote was 217 to 126.

The rejected resolution was reported to the full convention membership by the resolutions committee and carried a provision prohibiting any future American president from succeeding himself.

BEAVERBROOK'S PAPER PRINTED DESPITE BLAST

LONDON, Sept. 12—Despite damage from a German bomb, the London Evening Standard, owned by Lord Beaverbrook, minister for aircraft production, made every edition this afternoon.

The top floor of the newly modernized building in Shoe Lane just off Fleet Street was damaged by the explosion. The linotype department was temporarily disorganized, but will resume operations tomorrow. Type was set today in the offices of the London Daily Express, Lord Beaverbrook's morning paper.

The coping of one small corner of the building crashed down in a courtyard with the building's water-tower, littering the yard with concrete, glass and other minor debris.

Sum total of the damage was described as comparatively small, which was borne out by the fact that the paper made all editions on its own presses.

David Low, the Standard's famous cartoonist who has long been Britain's best-known political satirist, celebrated the occasion with a characteristic drawing. It showed Marshal Hermann Wilhelm Goering and Propaganda Minister Paul Joseph Goebbels perusing a copy of the Standard with amazement. The caption read:

"War Latest! Bomb Severely Damaged in Shoe Lane. Evening Standard as Usual."

TWO MEN ARRESTED AS MAKERS OF FAKE MONEY

CINCINNATI, Sept. 12 — Charged with possession of a plaster-of-paris mold with which they made and passed five counterfeit 50-cent pieces, two men were held in default of $1,500 bond each today following arraignment before U. S. Commissioner J. Paul Geoghegan. They were Arthur F. Fiegenbaum, 34, a hat cleaner, and Marvin A. Bobbit, 38, a presser, both of Cincinnati.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 12 — Transfer of 2,200 fighting airplanes to Britain and her Allies since the European war began has left the American army with only 1,700 aircraft, including training ships, Rep. Van Zandt (R) Pa., declared today.

At the same time the former commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, who says he gets his material figures from "confidential War Department sources," disclosed that he was making them public over the objections of Gen. George C. Marshall, army chief of staff.

In the Congressional Record today, the Pennsylvania inserted a letter that he wrote August 22 asking Marshall for lists of military equipment turned over to the Allies.

A reply from the general, stating "this information is being withheld because we believe its release is contrary to public interest," also was printed.

"My figures reveal that the United States has been aiding the Allies in a practical way and refute the assertion that America is merely extending sympathy to our British neighbors," Van Zandt said. "The American people are entitled to know this."

The representative said that his figures, showing that the army has now only 1,700 planes, have never before been made public.

England until a few days ago had 7,000 first line planes, while Germany has between 16,000 and 17,000 first line planes," he commented.

PHYSICIAN ASKS $7,500 FOR INJURY TO FINGER

CINCINNATI, Sept. 12 — Because his middle finger was fractured in an auto-bus collision April 8, Dr. Miles J. Scott today had on file a $7,500 damage suit against the Cincinnati City Transit company. The right middle finger of a physician is important, the suit asserted, because it is used to tap chests when making diagnoses.

School Officials Seek Larger Taxation Fund

Circleville school authorities and members of the board of education were pleading for additional tax funds, as they appeared before the Pickaway County Budget Commission assembled in the county auditor's office Thursday.

School authorities told Budget Commissioners R. G. Colville, George Gerhardt and Forrest Short that their present tax levy of .85 mills general and .50 mills bond was inadequate to equip the school with many needed items, particularly those pertaining to the manual training department.

Reich Spokesmen Report Big Offensive Against Thames, Other Isle Districts

BERLIN, Sept. 12—Killing civilians and starting huge fires, British raiders bombed Hamburg, Bremen and other German cities as well as Berlin last night and early this morning, an official announcement said today, charging explosives were dropped on residential districts.

During these night attacks the RAF bombers struck again at the heart of Berlin, igniting fires among business buildings in the Tiergarten area.

This was the same central section of the German capital attacked 24 hours earlier by British planes which dropped bombs on the Brandenburg Gate, the American embassy grounds and other famous spots in Berlin.

An official announcement this afternoon said that 14 civilians were killed and 41 injured by the British raids on Hamburg and Bremen and that 36 houses at Hamburg were destroyed.

Another special announcement said three German bombers yesterday afternoon carried out "especially effective" attacks on industrial works and docks along the lower Thames River in England, severely hitting a large power station at Beckton and the gas works at the Woolwich arsenal, causing conflagrations and violent explosions.

In addition, it was stated, a foundry at Woolwich was directly hit.

One of the bombers was hit by anti-aircraft fire and forced down in the channel, but German rescue planes saved the crew.

The latest official communique said:

"Last night British planes again penetrated northern Germany and dropped incendiary and explosive bombs on the residential quarters of several cities, especially Hamburg and Bremen, where they caused numerous extensive conflagrations and damages.

"Victims numbered several killed."

MANY WORKMEN HURT IN BLAST IN NEW JERSEY

KENVIL, New Jersey, Sept. 12 — An undetermined number of persons, estimated between 50 and 100, were injured today when a terrific powder blast destroyed two buildings of the Hercules Powder Plant.

Ordinarily employed at the plant are upwards of 1,000 workers.

The force of the blast was felt at Tarrytown, 20 miles distant on the New York side of the Hudson River.

The blast let go with thunderous roar at 1:35 p. m. Reports were that the plant had increased its working force beyond 1,200 persons since recently receiving a $16,000,000 War Department contract.

Hitler May Be Perched For Big Bid

Surprising Resistance From Isles Upsets Early Victory Strategy Of Fuehrer

By J. C. Oestreicher International News Service Foreign Editor

The electrifying disclosure that Britain has perfected and put to use a new system of anti-aircraft defense that presumably will spare London the complete pulverization planned by Adolf Hitler's air force came from London today.

And at the same time there were mounting indications that the Fuehrer has decided to make his supreme gamble without delay and attempt to do what no one has done since William the Conqueror in 1066—invade England.

Neither of these two developments means that the attacks on London are to cease. On the contrary, Prime Minister Winston Churchill made clear yesterday that part of the Nazi strategy is to divert British minds from invasion by hammering ruthlessly from the air at the heart of the empire.

But London's truly surprising resistance and determination to carry on no matter how much destruction hurtles from the skies—coupled of course with relentless British raids on Berlin—points toward evidence that Hitler is going to rush into the final stage of the conflict while he still stands some chance of success.

Churchill has never been an

12 SCHOOLS INSPECTED BY HEALTHER, COUNTY NURSE

Health Commissioner A. D. Blackburn and Health Nurse Margaret Hunsicker, promoting a school health program for public schools in the county, have examined twelve schools, checking buildings for fire hazards, testing water supplies and examining pupils for communicable diseases. Dr. Blackburn reported Thursday that no skin diseases and no contaminated water supplies had yet been discovered.

Five schools remain to be examined.

After the preliminary check of the schools has been completed, Dr. Blackburn and Miss Hunsicker will begin a thorough examination of pupils, giving physical examinations, vaccinations for smallpox and immunizations for diphtheria.

Raiders Damage Offices Of Two Newspapers, Although Londoners Claim All-Night Bomb Offensive Fails; New Hope Provided

NO SEARCHLIGHTS BEING EMPLOYED

Barrage Reported To Have Been Greatest In World's History; Secret Methods Used To Predict Position Of German Airplanes

LONDON, Sept. 12—Bringing new hope to battered London, military officials announced today that a revolutionary new system of anti-aircraft defense eliminating the use of searchlights had frustrated a Nazi plan to devastate the capital last night.

Although Nazi bombers in a night long raid scored a number of hits, hammering the offices of the London Evening Standard and the Daily Herald as well as a motion picture house in the west end, the night-long attack was a failure.

The Standard is owned by Lord Beaverbrook, minister for aircraft production and a member of the inner war cabinet.

The raiders were hurled back by terrific curtains of anti-aircraft fire thrown aloft by heavy-calibre improved defense batteries.

The new barrage, which will be continued while London is threatened, is based on new secret methods of predicting positions of attacking planes.

It enabled steel-helmeted anti-aircraftmen to fire with unerring aim. No searchlights criss-crossed the skies last night to point out vulnerable targets to the attackers—one of the greatest weaknesses in the past of the emplacements designed to protect the capital.

Official sources described the sheets of fire sent up against Nazi night raiders over the British capital as the heaviest anti-aircraft barrage the world has ever seen.

They declared that new, secretly mounted batteries protecting London had achieved increasing successes in beating off German bombers and last night had "saved" London from an attempt to level the capital to dust and rubble.

This was accomplished, it was claimed, by forcing raiders over London to tremendous altitudes during the night and holding them for the most part at the fringe of the city.

Nevertheless, the German planes that pounded London for nine hours and one minute in a dusk-to-dawn attack managed to add new wounds.

Four bombs struck an isolation hospital in southeast London, demolishing three whole blocks of buildings.

In another area a gas main was set on fire when a high explosive bomb landed in a southwest London district. Later the raiders returned to this spot, bombing fire fighters working to quench the flames and damaging a number of houses.

A four-story warehouse also was struck by an incendiary and gutted by fire, but a large block of apartments nearby was saved.

St. Paul Menaced

One delayed-action bomb landed at St. Paul's Cathedral in the heart of London and this morning troops assisted police in cordoning the historic edifice. Several soldiers had a narrow escape when a gas main blew up in front of the cathedral and a fire started in the street. The blaze was quickly brought under control.

But everywhere in London today the greatest topic of conversation was the unprecedented anti-aircraft barrage which ripped the skies throughout the night and sent up thousands of shells each hour.

LABOR AID IS PLEDGED

Four Point Speech Heard; Right To Take Industry Reaffirmed

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12 — President Roosevelt, having sharply defined his foreign, labor and industrial policies, left it up to the voters today whether they wanted the New Deal to continue or wanted to turn it over to those who "have shown their fundamental opposition" to its tenets.

Under sponsorship of the Democratic National Committee, on paid radio time, in an acknowledged political address, the President laid the following principles before the nation for judgment:

1. He said he has "one supreme determination x x to do all I can to keep war away from these shores for all time." He pledged himself to stand squarely on the Democratic platform which says American forces will not fight in foreign lands except in case of attack.

2. The government should have the right to take over industry for national defense purposes under the principle of eminent domain whenever industry refuses to cooperate.

3. All of the gains made in the last seven years for labor in the way of wage, and bargaining improvements will be retained.

4. Social Security benefits must be broadened and extended, with particular attention to improvement of the old age pension system and an increase in the amount of the pension.

Appeal Made for Labor Aid

Speaking last night before the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, Chauffeurs, Stablenmen and Helpers, the President made the major bid of his campaign for a third term election to retain the labor vote which supported him in such numbers in 1932 and 1936.

Not once did Mr. Roosevelt mention the name of his Republican opponent, Wendell Willkie, but his 3,000-word address was studded with obvious shafts directed at his political opposition.

In the field of foreign affairs, he said:

"Let us have an end to the sort of appeasement which seeks to keep us helpless by playing on fear and by indirect sabotage of all the progress we are making. 'Appeasement' is a polite word for misdirected partisanship."

On the score of compulsory acquisition of industrial plants—a subject about which Willkie has been protesting for some days—the President asserted "no reasonable person can object to giving the government the power to acquire the services of any plant or factory for adequate compensation, if the owner refuses to make its services available to the defense needs of the nation."

He added that "in all of these plans for national defense, only those who seek to play on the fears of the American people, discover an attempt to lead us into war."

Labor Spies Assailed

Addressing himself to organized labor, Mr. Roosevelt pointed to the huge gains in membership that virtually all unions had made in the last seven years. He recalled the days "when employers sought to meet threatened strikes by demanding that the government—federal or state—call out armed troops." He condemned the "un-American practice" of "hiring labor spies and setting up private arsenals to ferret out members of a union."

The President reminded his audience of the New Deal's social reforms and said: "It is my hope that soon the United States will have a national system under which no needy man or woman within our borders will lack a minimum old age pension which will provide adequate food, clothing and lodging to the end of the road—without having to go to the poorhouse to get it."

Mr. Roosevelt charged in so many words that his political opponents "loved" the laboring man only four months out of each year—the four months preceding election.

"You will remember that kind of opposition in the campaign of four years ago when certain employers, politicians and newspapers—all of whom are now active in this campaign—in an effort to mislead and intimidate labor, went to the extent of putting untrue electioneering notices in pay envelopes in order to smash the new Social Security Act and force its repeal by electing its enemies," he said.

"That kind of opposition comes only too often from those who regularly for three years and eight months block labor's welfare, and then for four months loudly proclaim that they are labor's true friends—from those who love the laboring man in November but forget him in January.

Up To People

"The people must decide whether to continue the type of government which has fostered the progress to date, or whether to turn it over to those who by their actions, if not always by their word, have shown their fundamental opposition to the main objectives toward which we have worked in the past and to which we are definitely committed for the future."

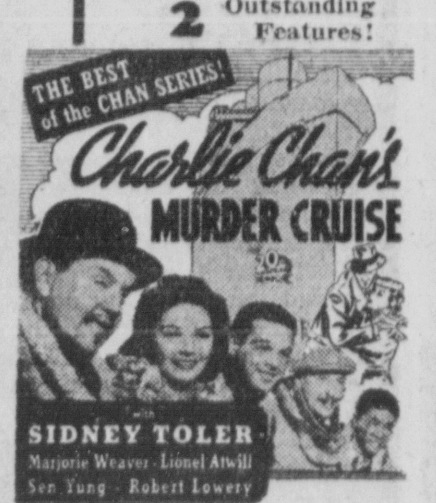

Mr. Roosevelt praised the "teamwork" he had received from labor, industry and agriculture in the national defense drive, stating he was particularly happy to be able to say that the A. F. of L., the CIO and the Railroad Brotherhoods, despite their personal differences, were cooperating splendidly.

Uncle Ezra will hold an old-fashioned "jam session" when he judges the jars of preserves brought to station E-Z-R-A by a bevy of Rosedale housewives on the Uncle Ezra program, Saturday, 9:00 p. m. over the NBC-Red network. The musical highlight of the program will be a ballad especially composed for the occasion by Si Skinner and titled "When It's Chili Sauce Time In September, I'll Pick A Lilly For You." The Rosedale trio and Ramblers will sing a medley of Spanish songs.

BEAT THE BAND

"Red" Ingle demonstrates his comic ability in the novelty number, "There's An Awful Lot of Rhythm In A Slide Trombone," on the Beat the Band program, Sunday, 5:30 p. m. over the NBC-Red network. Perry Como sings "Trade Winds," and Ted Weems leads the orchestra in "Sing To Your Senorita" and "Little Girl." Garry Moore emcees the musical quiz and Fort Pearson announces.

BLONDIE CLEANS UP

Blondie will prove to husband Dagwood that gambling does not pay on the Blondie program, Monday, 6:30 p. m. over the CBS network. Dagwood buys a Sweepstakes ticket and has practically spent his unearned fortune until circumstances prove him wrong. Blondie cleans up and saves the day for the Bumstead household. Penny Singleton and Arthur Lake star in the series.

RADIO BRIEFS

Ed Byron and Joe Cross report "What's My Name" will have a sensationally different format when it returns to the air.

John McIntyre will be radio's busiest actor when in addition to featured roles on "Meet Mr. Meek," "Court of Missing Heirs" and "We The Abbotts," he becomes a regular on the "Cavalcade" stanza due October 2nd.

Check up on the hunter's voice in the cartoon short, "The Wild Hare," because it's radio's Arthur Q. Bryan, "Wittie Man" on the Al Pearce program.

Kay Jordan, 19 year old daughter of Fibber McGee and Molly, will enroll at the University of Southern California in Los Angeles this fall with plans for a course in journalism. She's interested in a writing career.

Girl Alone star, Betty Winkler will fly to the coast for her guest shot on the Arch Oboler series, staying there only long enough for the rehearsal and broadcast. Vehicle will be "The Cat Wife," which she did with Boris Karloff two years ago.

Bill Stern's Sports Newsreel of the Air will cop a 52 weeks renewal over the NBC-Blue network, effective October 6.

It was reunion for Lois Collier and Arthur "Dagwood" Lake at the "Blondie" broadcast this week. Miss Collier played opposite Lake in her first picture, "Women Must Dress."

ASHVILLE

By S. D. Fridley
Ashville, Phone 79

William Pabst, who underwent a major operation at a Columbus hospital a couple of weeks since, came to the home of his brother Joseph Pabst and his family yesterday and is slowly improving.

Dr. Curtis Cronley, veterinarian, (accompanied by his wife attended the merican National Veterinary Association at Washington recently. Said there were about two thousand in attendance and most every state in the Union was represented.

Charles Cloud has sold to Rev. and Mrs. O. W. Smith his North Long Street dwelling property. While they did not say so, "the pictures have it" that when and if the Smiths retire from the U. S. parsonage and to private life, they will remain in Ashville as their permanent home.

And another dwelling real estate deal. Edward Adkins as administrator of the Forsyth estate, has sold to Harry Abbott for $900, the dwelling property located on Station Street and near the N. & W. depot. To the older citizens, this is known as the "Steve Selig property," the once Selig family having been reared there.

While mentioning this location, we are reminded of the two new dwellings on the North Side, the one the James Neece home which he has just recently occupied, and the other, the Fred Curry dwelling now getting a good start in construction. The Curry family will occupy this when completed.

An unverified report says the Kibbee family of the East Side is removing from Ashville to Pickerington, the dwelling made vacant by them to be occupied by Floyd Pettibone and family.

Don Cloud and wife have removed to the Capital City, his employment being there. Mrs. Hattie Ebert of Big Rapids, Mich., is here on a visit to T. R. Acord and wife. She is Mr. Acord's sister. . . Harold Bowers with the State Department of Education, will take time out, beginning with Monday next, for a two week's vacation which will be spent among the south states seeing things and incidentally calling on some of the State Departments of Education down there. Mrs. Bowers and son Bobby will accompany him.

TWO NEW COAST GUARD STATIONS READY TO OPEN

Service Ahead Of Other Government Agencies In Being Prepared

PATROL WORK VALUED

Units To Be Developed At Elizabeth, N. C., And At Frisco

NEW YORK, Sept. 12—Living up to its motto, "Semper Paratus," the Coast Guard will be the first of the United States services to accomplish much toward national preparedness when it opens two new air bases within the next month.

The new stations are located at Elizabeth City, N. C., and at San Francisco, Calif. They are designed to extend neutrality patrol work which the Coast Guard shares with the Navy.

Ordinarily a branch of the Treasury Department, the Coast Guard becomes part of the Navy in time of war. Even in peacetime it cooperates with the Navy, taking part in the annual fleet maneuvers.

Information gathered by the Coast Guard air force on daily neutrality patrol flight which check on coastwise shipping is relayed to both Navy and Coast Guard headquarters in Washington.

Types of Planes Used

The planes used in the neutrality patrol work, Grumman and Douglas amphibians, and Hall flying boats, are types that can be converted readily into military ships in the advent of war.

Normal peacetime task of the Coast Guard air force is to keep coastwise shipping lanes open and to keep a protective eye on ships engaged in such shipping. Since the outbreak of the European War, however, the air force has the added task of ensuring the United States neutrality rights along our shores.

The Elizabeth City station is the first at which the Coast Guard has its own air base. In the past air bases were located at some established airport convenient to a regular station.

Facilities at the Elizabeth City base will provide for three seaplanes, three amphibians and four landplanes. Ten officers and 86 enlisted men will be stationed there to maintain the planes.

Built at a cost of $1,163,361, the base has four concrete runways 100 feet wide and over 3,000 feet long. It embraces 294 acres of land with 4,250 feet of this land fronting on the Pasquotank River.

Barracks Are of Concrete

The barracks and hangar are built entirely of concrete and are adjacent to the water. The hangar, which is the latest type being installed on Army Air Corps fields, and the control tower are located on top of the hangar. Two floodlights at each end of the four runways complete the lighting equipment.

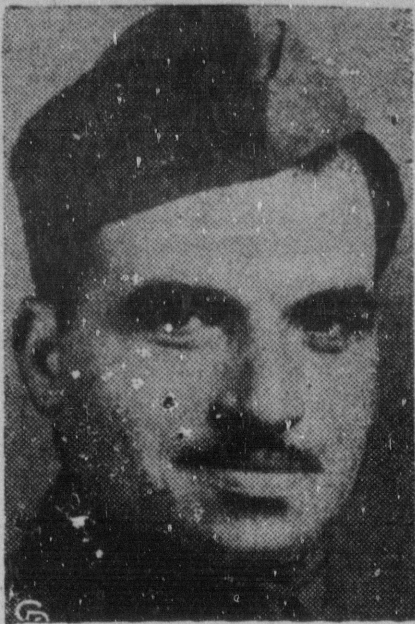

The west coast base at San Francisco consists of 21 acres bordering on South San Francisco Bay. It is located on South San Francisco Municipal Airport. The hangar and barracks are of the same type as those at the Elizabeth City base. The cost of this base is expected to approximate $600,000.

The two new air bases bring the total of bases up to ten. There are more than fifty planes and more than 500 men at these bases.

Coast Guard air bases are located at Salem, Mass., Floyd Bennett Field, New York City, Elizabeth City, N. C., Charleston, S. C., and Miami, Fla., along the Atlantic coast. The bases at St. Petersburg, Fla., and at Biloxi, Miss., patrol the Gulf of Mexico. The west coast has three stations located at San Diego, San Francisco, and Port Angeles, all in California.

PETTENGILL

"The Gentleman from Indiana"

CONSCRIPTING THE PRINTING PRESS

The Russell-Overton Amendment to conscript property may become a major issue in the campaign. Although it ought to be killed, I am glad it passed the Senate. It should help bring this nation down to earth, and I imagine many Senators voted for it for that very reason. If Mr. Roosevelt can be smoked out in open support of this proposal, it will show more clearly than anything since the Court packing bill how far he is aiming to go if reelected.

Consider that perspiring patriot, Senator Josh Lee of Oklahoma who rode to glory on "40 acres and a mule" free to one and all. The Senator openly advocates that Mr. Roosevelt should have the power under the Russell-Overton Amendment to take over the newspapers of the United States. He says you have to fight Hitler with his own weapon, a muzzled press. This implies not only that we are already at war but that even if we are at peace, only a Nazi America can live on the same planet with a Nazi Germany.

Who knows, if PETTENGILL may not be long now before Josh becomes the first American Goebbels—Minister of Propaganda and Public Unintelligence. On the surface this may sound silly. But when seizure of newspapers and the radio is openly advocated on the floor of the United States Senate by New Deal leaders and the Senate passes a law that would give the President that very power, it is time to take notice. Whether the power to seize newspapers is actually exercised or not, the mere existence of the power is a potent threat against the free press of this country. A highwayman with a loaded pistol pressed to your heart has power over you even if he does not pull the trigger.

Not only a manufacturing plant may be seized; the Amendment covers "any facility". That is a broad word nowadays. It is applied to Veterans' hospitals, schools, railroads, and the like, and it is certainly broad enough to include a newspaper plant or a radio broadcasting station.

You may reply that the law would be unconstitutional if applied to newspapers because the Constitution says that Congress shall pass no law which shall abridge the freedom of the press. I agree. You are right. But neither you nor I are on the Supreme Court.

We had a Supreme Court once that upheld the freedom of the press against the Dictator of Louisiana. But a new Court now sits in Washington. Would a majority of that Court hold the Russell-Overton Amendment unconstitutional? With all due respect, would it hold unconstitutional any law or executive act, desired or committed by this administration? In short, as it is an axiom of the New Deal that the Constitution is whatever the Supreme Court says it is, there remains another question: How much of a Constitution do we still have?

The newspapers of the country had better not take any more chances on the Court. They and their readers should join Mr. Willkie in fighting the proposal before it becomes a law.

It is said that the President had a similar power during the World War. That is not so. During the World War the President could lease a manufacturing plant temporarily during the emergency. The title remained in the owner and he resumed possession when the war ended. The pending Senate bill gives the President the absolute power in his own arbitrary and uncontrolled discretion to seize, and take permanent fee simple title to any and every manufacturing plant or other facility in the country.

The property never comes back.

The peacetime conscription soldier does—in twelve months, plus all kinds of claims against the Treasury as long as he or his widow or children live. When the seizure is once made, the property is socialized for all time. It belongs permanently to the Federal Government. It goes off the tax lists of local and State governments and makes the tax burden greater on property still left in private hands. That the management of any plant should be able to drive a Simon Legree bargain with his government is, of course, intolerable. But there are adequate ways of dealing with these situations without seizing the property. For example, a lease as during the World War or a fine.

This is the fourth time that the power to conscript property has been demanded in recent months. It was in the May military dictatorship bill that Congress refused to pass in 1938. Mr. Edison demanded it when he became Secretary of the Navy. Last June an amendment was slipped over in secret conference to give the Navy Secretary such power. When the House discovered the trick, it tried to repeal it but the Senate has refused to concur.

There is much more to this business than the cheap gibe of the New Dealers "So you would conscript men, but not dollars!" That is supposed to knock 'em dead. It took enormous courage for Wendell Willkie to face it. No mere politician would have monkeyed with that demagogue's delight. But then, it may be that we are no longer in the market for mere politicians.

CARS HIT AT CORNER

The right front fender, running board and door of the automobile of Clement McClure, 30, Route 3, Circleville, were damaged in an accident Wednesday at 6:25 p. m. when the car collided with that driven by Elwood Lewis, South Washington Street, at the intersection of South Pickaway and East Corwin Street. Lewis was driving the automobile of William Holmes, 214 East Mill Street.

TALMADGE WINS GEORGIA JOUST FOR GOVERNOR

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 12—Eugene Talmadge appeared assured today of Democratic nomination for his third term as governor of Georgia on the basis of incomplete returns from yesterday's primary. Nomination in the primary is considered tantamount to election.

Talmadge, who served as governor for two years in the early 1930's, was leading in partial tabulations from 129 counties having a total of 329 county unit votes. Only 206 county unit votes are necessary for nomination.

Commissioner of Agriculture Columbus Roberts, although his popular vote in early returns was higher than that for the red-suspected Talmadge, led only in 21 counties with a unit total of 62. Abit Nix, Athens attorney, conceded defeat early in the race.

Group Four Meeting Held In Chillicothe With 200 Attending

RAYMOND SCHUTZ TALKS

Need For Strengthening Of Democracy's Columns Stressed

CHILLICOTHE, Sept. 12—In an inspirational address to more than 200 members of Group Four of the Ohio Bankers' Association, meeting Wednesday night at the Chillicothe Country Club, J. Raymond Schutz, Indianapolis, president of the association, declared that it was his "firm belief that England will withstand Germany" because she is strong in the four basic columns of democracy—the home, the church, the school, and government.

Among Cincinnati and Pickaway County bankers attending the District Four meeting in Chillicothe were N. E. Reichelderfer of the Circleville Savings and Banking Co., D. D. Dowden and Ned Hitchcock of the Second National, Clark Will of the Third National, a past president of the Ohio Bankers' Association; Everett Seeds of the Ashville Citizens' Bank, G. P. Hunsicker of the Williamsport Farmers National, and George Kirk of the New Holland First National.

the Standard Life Insurance Company of Indiana, declared that it was his "firm belief that England will withstand Germany" because she is strong in the four basic columns of democracy—the home, the church, the school, and government.

To combat "fifth column" activity which was largely responsible for the downfall of France and ten other nations in Europe in the past year, Mr. Schutz told bankers that the responsibility of strengthening the four columns of democracy in the United States rested with them, not as businessmen, but as American citizens. Closer relationship between local banks and local communities was urged by J. D. St. John, president of the Ohio Bankers' Association.

Banks Aiding Districts "Banks," he declared, "are anxious to satisfy the credit needs of their trade areas and are doing so."

He urged local communities to go to their local banks first in seeking financial service. Banks, he said, should supply every sound demand for loans in order to meet competition from the government. "Government competition with local banks is usually followed by government competition in other fields of business," Mr. St. John warned those who see a false and temporary advantage in advocacy of further government entrance into business.

David Auch Speaks Others on the program were Mr. David M. Auch, secretary of the state bankers' association; Mr. Rodney P. Lein, state superintendent of banks. Both men discussed business subjects.

During the dinner, entertainment was furnished by Frankie Wenzel, local accordionist. M. G. Harover, Manchester, presided as chairman of the group. Other officers are H. G. Hudson, Wilmington, vice chairman, and John J. Tierney, Portsmouth, secretary-treasurer. Bankers from the following counties attended the meeting: Adams, Brown, Clinton, Fayette, Gallia, Highland, Jackson, Lawrence, Pickaway, Pike, Ross, Scioto, and Vinton.

ADJUTANT GENERAL LAUDS GUARDSMEN FOR ABILITY COLUMBUS, Sept. 12—Adjutant General Gilson D. Light today commended Ohio national guardsmen for their part in the recent Second Army maneuver held in Wisconsin.

"Your commander-in-chief, Gov. John W. Bricker," Light wrote division heads, "has asked me to express to you his sincere appreciation of your fine performance of duty during the maneuvers. Your commander-in-chief is proud of you, I am proud of you and your commanding officers are proud of you."

Wednesday Night's Raids On Isle Empire See Reduced Losses

LONDON, Sept. 12—More than 5,000 persons have been killed or wounded in German air raids on London since Saturday, official figures showed today.

While the first four nights of aerial blitzkrieg killed more than 1,000 persons and injured more than 4,000, it was semi-officially reported today that the dead and injured in the raid Wednesday night and early Thursday was less than during the previous raids this week.

Official toll of the raids was: Saturday—306 killed, 1,337 injured. Sunday—286 killed, 1,440 injured. Monday—400 killed, 1,400 injured. Tuesday—18 killed, 280 injured. Total—1,010 killed, 4,457 injured.

EVANSTON, ILL., SCHOOL FAVORS U. S. DRAFT ACT

EVANSTON, Ill., Sept. 12—Approval of the principle of selective service by Northwestern University was announced today by President Franklin B. Snyder. Such service provides a "timely, efficient and democratic method of strengthening the armed forces of the nation," the statement said. At the same time the university, with the approval of the executive committee of the board of trustees, assured students they would suffer neither tuition loss nor academic handicap if they are called into military service.

COUNCIL AND INDUSTRIAL MEN CONFER ON RATES

City councilmen, meeting with officials of the Container Corporation, the Winner Canning Company, the Esmeralda Canning Company and the Pickaway Dairy Company Wednesday afternoon, made preliminary plans for establishing permanent sewage disposal assessment rates for the four Circleville plants. Council will finish the ordinance containing assessment rates at its next regular meeting.

ITALIANS CLAIM HEAVY TOLL OF BRITAIN'S ARMS HOLDUP MOTIVE BEING CHECKED IN DEATH CASE

ROME, Sept. 12—Destruction of two British destroyers during a fierce Italian bombing attack on Aden was claimed today in an official communique which said a British land offensive against a Fascist bridgehead at Massala in East Africa had been hurled back. Further devastating raids along the Egyptian coast and a British air raid on Sciacian also were announced in the communique, which said:

"Fascist planes made further attacks on railway structure along the Egyptian coast. Enemy positions and supplies at Sollum and Sidibarrani also were bombed from the air again during the night—causing fires, explosions and destruction. An enemy armored car was bombed and machine-gunned. The enemy attempted an air raid on Derna, but was repulsed by Italian anti-air raid reaction. One enemy plane was brought down and another probably was destroyed. One Italian plane has not returned.

"A check-up reveals that two enemy destroyers were sunk during the bombardment of Aden, carried out on September 1 and 2. Italian formations bombed the airport at Khartoum, hitting a hangar. The Hayia railroad junction also was attacked by our air force and hits were scored directly on railroad crossings, cars, deposits. In another raid, buildings including three barracks were hit by bombs from our planes and one fire was started."

MUSKINGUM TO CONDUCT PILOT TRAINING COURSE NEW CONCORD, Sept. 12—A civilian pilot training course in cooperation with the Civil Aeronautics Authority of the federal government will be introduced this year at Muskingum College according to an announcement made by Dr. Robert N. Montgomery, president of the college, earlier in the week.

Ground instruction will be under the direction of Dr. Paul E. Martin, professor of physics. It will be taught at the college and will include work in meteorology and navigation. Flying will be done at one of the three near by airports to be selected by the civil authority. Students taking the course will receive 72 hours of ground study and 35 to 50 hours of flying experience.

ITALIANS CLAIM HEAVY TOLL OF BRITAIN'S ARMS HOLDUP MOTIVE BEING CHECKED IN DEATH CASE

CINCINNATI, Sept. 12—Confident that the victim was murdered while resisting robbers, peace officers of three states today sought the automobile stolen from Robert T. Myers, 22-year-old University of Cincinnati student—after he was shot through the heart Tuesday night.

Cincinnati police expressed the belief that the car, a new coupe, would bear fingerprints that might lead to the identity of the bandits. Officers said the robbery theory was the only one that appeared to be logical.

Myers' body was found at the entrance to the Union terminal, where relatives said he had gone to attend a meeting of the Foundrymen's association. The victim was a student in metallurgy at the university night college. During the day he had worked at the Aluminum Industries, Inc.

The slain youth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Myers, with whom he lived, told police the student had left his wallet at home the night he was killed.

Police asserted that Myers, a powerful youth, probably was shot while resisting the robbers. He was a champion weight lifter at the Y.M.C.A.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up nights. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep. When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may also cause nagging backache, rheumatism, joint leg pains, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

IT'S OUR TEAM!

When we see a Circleville football team in action, we don't think of it as the team of a certain school but as OURS. That's because we're proud of the tradition of good sportsmanship and clean, hard fighting that has been built by local grid teams of the past.

We've seen local teams win and we've seen them lose . . . but we're proud to say that we've never seen them arrogant over victory or bitter over defeat. The boys who play the game for Circleville have always had the true spirit of American sportsmanship.

We have high hopes for this year's football team. Naturally, we'd be tickled to death to see Circleville rate the top of the list when the season is over. But we want the members of the Circleville team to know that we're "for" them all the way, win or lose, just so long as they play the game with the spirit which has always been characteristic of our gridmen. We want them to know that we'll be on the sidelines, cheering them on, wishing them well, hoping for victory but never crying about losses.

Play the game well and play it hard! Get in and fight! Make us prouder of you than we've ever been of previous teams. Make us proud to say "That's OUR Team!"

NATIONAL UNITY
THE President has said that "the greatest attack ever launched against freedom of the individual is nearer the Americas than ever before." In the presence of this danger he insists that two things are essential—preparedness for defense and national unity. "We need a conviction, felt deep in us all, that there are no divisions among us. We are all members of the same body. We are all Americans."

It is natural to echo this utterance with a slight variation—"well, nearly all." We are not yet so completely unified as Britain or Canada. That is a natural result of our greater variety of racial origin and our former liberality in the matter of immigration. But there can be no doubt that our people are far more united now than they were at the same stage of the last war. And this unity seems to grow steadily in spite of all the foreign efforts to beloud the issues in American eyes.
There has always been alien meddling in America. But our nation is today far more aware of foreign perils and more alert in resisting them than it has ever been. And this fact should be self-evident: The more unanimous we are in self-defense, the less likely we are to have war.

BIRDS AND SPRAYS
CIVILIZATION has a clumsy way of stepping on its own feet. That is, many "improvements" turn out to be mistakes. Over-zealous spraying of trees, some authorities suspect, may be one of them.
Thus the Audubon Society of New Jersey sends out a questionnaire from Newark to park and shade tree commissioners and other interested persons, asking whether "bird protectors" are not being destroyed along with "insect enemies" by poison spray.
One well informed observer replies that the spacious garden areas and great shade trees around his home, which used to be frequented by birds, have hardly any now. The wrens are all gone. He suspects that spraying has something to do with it.
He thinks a good deal of such work may defeat its own ends. When there are many birds, they tend to keep down the insects. If sprays are used for that purpose, and the birds are thereby driven away for lack of food, the birds' anti-insect services are lost along with their songs.

'ROUND CIRCLEVILLE... Hour by Hour

Pages From the Diary of An Antiquated Reporter:
Up to find the ville in the grasp of Fall and was forced to don a coat, but hung onto the straw top. A few days more of wear for that. Think the felt will be conscripted Friday night for the football game, although if my memory serves me right at the opener last year I saw many a straw and even liners.
Circleville this year has by far the best high school football team of my time in the ville. It is really Coach Black's first team, and it is more nearly a team than any I have seen here. Before there were eleven boys on the field with eleven personal ideas of how things should be done. Now, there are eleven boys with but a single idea, and that idea originates with the coach. The kids are blocking well, tackling well, carrying out most of their assignments and working together. So long as each griddy works for the team rather than for individual glory that team will do right well. Some youngsters gain the idea that they can lift the world single-handed. They can't and everyone except them knows it and they dis-

Daily Washington Merry-Go-Round

BY DREW PEARSON AND ROBERT S. ALLEN
WILLKIES COMFORTABLE
RUSHVILLE, Ind.—Preparing for his first big campaign tour, Wendell Willkie enjoyed the comfortable life of a summer visitor in this mellow county seat.
For the most part he had no fixed schedule and divided his time between the old Frank Cross farm a little west of here, which he owns, and the solid, red brick mansion on shady Harrison Street, which he rents from the owner of Rushville's leading department store. Around the house run a spacious porch, and it is here that Willkie spent much of his time.
The GOP standard bearer rose around 7 a. m., and had a hearty Hoosier breakfast with his wife and son Phil. From then on, his day was filled with interviews, telephone calls, dictation, reading and just plain taking it easy. He usually retired a little after midnight.
Willkie transacted most of his important campaign business by phone. For this purpose two experienced operators were brought from Indianapolis and a special switchboard set up. The other day he talked an hour and a half with San Francisco. His letters average around 250 a day.
Willkie was easily accessible to friends, politicians and crackpots alike. With the latter two groups, however, he obviously was quickly bored and wished them off on members of his staff. Special friends he took out to his farm, where he did his most important conferring.
Of the five farms which Willkie owns, three are in his wife's name. The Frank Cross farm used to belong to a well-to-do farmer (a Democrat) who extended himself too far and was caught in the depression. The farm was bought for little more than $70 an acre.
All of Willkie's farms cooperate in the AAA program and he and his tenants will receive $3,110 in benefit payments this year, which they will divide fifty-fifty. Willkie also owns a business building in Rushville and an interest in the Rushville National Bank.
HAPPY MRS. WILLKIE
Mrs. Willkie had a wonderful time in Rushville. This is her home, and the folks genuinely like her. On the courthouse square they say, "Edith is a mighty fine girl. Don't know her husband very well."
Mrs. Willkie's father, Phil Wilk, built the courthouse, later was county auditor. At least two hundred relatives of Mrs. Willkie live in and around Rushville.
Son Phil, handsome Princeton undergraduate, also had a grand time. He got a big rush from the local belles and had more invitations than he could accept.
An important part of the Willkie entourage are the newsmen covering him. They stayed downtown in a hotel and were about the only part of the campaign personnel that the townspeople saw regularly. The reporters are the candidate's personal corps of advisers. He consults them frequently on statements and strategy and they are on the alert to protect him.
An illustration of this was his frank admission the day he addressed the towns-

DIET AND HEALTH
Daily Bath Promotes Good Health

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.
The Americans unquestionably are the healthiest people in the world today. One reason is climate, one is an even food supply, and one is probably bathtub.
The United States owns 95 per cent of the bathtubs in the world today. In Paris, 25 per cent of private homes have a private bath—and Paris is supposed to be the cleanest city in France! Parisians average a bath once every four months and residents of Moscow once in eighteen months, according to my informant, who is Mildred Brenna, writing in HYGELA.
Steaming Hot
The Japs and Finns are the great bathers of the world. The Jap averages 365 baths a year. Their bathtub facilities are nothing like ours, however, but are either tubs or showers placed in a bamboo hut in the back yard. The Japanese bath has a medicinal rather than cleansing purpose; the temperature of the water is very hot, at least up to 120 Fahrenheit. Finns also enjoy a medicinal steam bath once a week in their log bath huts which accommodate ten to twenty people.
These huts are arranged so that a hot steam bath can be enjoyed. As sweating proceeds, the bather rubs his skin with crystals of Epsom salt. After the stay in the bath house is over the bather jumps in a snow bank or has a bucket of cold water poured over him.
For the Japanese, a cold bath is used only as a penance.
In Russia a bathtub costs 2000 rubles—as much as a grand piano.
A few years ago I traveled in England by motor from London through the northern Cathedral towns. These were cities of from ten-thousand to one-hundred-thousand population. I managed to get one bath during my trip. In York, at the best hotel in town, I was told in the morning that eight people had "booked a bath" ahead of me in the public bath room. This was in cities the size of Wichita, Kansas, or Lima, Ohio, or Bend, Oregon. Imagine a hotel in such American cities with no room with a private bath!
I am not so sure, however, but that we Americans have arranged things so comfortably for ourselves that we overdo the bathing idea. There is no law of Nature that requires a daily bath, especially in the winter. I believe our skins would be healthier if we bathed once or twice a week in cold water. This is especially true of hand washing, which can be done in such excess as to induce chapping.
Water either hotter or colder than the body brings on physiological changes just as definitely as do certain drugs. These affect especially the blood vessels, raising and lowering blood pressure, giving the heart an extra workout. This again is not always desirable for those past middle age.
EDITOR'S NOTE: Dr. Clending has seven pamphlets which can be obtained by readers. Each pamphlet sells for 10 cents. For any one pamphlet desired, send 10 cents in coin, and a self-addressed envelope to Dr. Logan Clending, in care of this paper. The pamphlets are: "Three Weeks' Reducing Diet," "Indigestion and Constipation," "Reducing and Gaining," "Infant Feeding," "Instructions for the Treatment of Diabetes," "Venereal Hygiene" and "The Care of the Hair and Skin."

Looking Back in Pickaway County

FIVE YEARS AGO
Miss Margaret Mattinson had two tires stolen from her car while parked in front of her home in South Charleston, someone jacking up the car and removing one front and one rear wheel.
Coming to the aid of the high school's football squad, Ed Wallace, bakery proprietor, announced he would outfit one youth on the squad. Lawrence Goeller and C. B. Barnhart had announced previously their intentions to do the same.
Mrs. George P. Foresman, South Court Street, entertained at a luncheon at her home honoring her daughter, Katherine, and three of her friends, Miss Charlotte Moore, Miss Ellen Bennett and Miss Rosemary Jackson, who were returning soon to their respective colleges.
10 YEARS AGO
Robert Rooney was elected president of the senior class of Circleville High School at the annual election of officers. Don Rader was named vice-president and Doris Peters, secretary and treasurer.
Announcement was made of the marriage September 4 of Mrs. A. C. Nothstine, son of Mrs. R. C. Nothstine of East Franklin Street, and Miss Helen Clarke Barth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Waldemar Barth of Newport, R. I. Mr. Nothstine was an officer at the Training Station at Newport and planned to live in that community with his bride.
William Radcliff of Williamsport who graduated in June from Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, was to leave for Ada where he planned to enter the law school of Ohio Northern University.

RELEASED BY CENTRAL PRESS ASSOCIATION
RUPERT GRAYSON

READ THIS FIRST:
Gun Cotton, famous Scotland Yard agent, becomes interested in a stranger, who calls himself Fullinger, and has an agent assigned to follow him, but the latter loses the trail. Gun's superior, known only as X, is interested also, but assigns Cotton to the case of a missing bomber. The agent goes to a new "hush-hush" station where new and secret types of military planes are tested. When Gun goes up with Squadron Leader Hazeldene in a very closely-guarded plane, which supposedly contains important secrets of construction and equipment, but really does not, he gets a radio message to meet another plane, G.1313, which takes off to meet the R. A. F. mystery plane. Following orders from G.1313 Hazeldene and Gun and at a spot unknown to them. Three men get out of the black bomber, one wearing an R. A. F. uniform. The British pilot and the secret agent are told they are to follow G.1313 to still another place. Gun and his pilot start to take an attempt to get away.
CHAPTER EIGHTEEN
G.1313, BLACK and siniste as a huge carion-crow, circled and climbed. Then she came roaring after X. O. O. as Gun and Hazeldene pretended to attempt a getaway. She could do two miles to their one, and she swooped on them as the hawk swoops on the hedge-sparrow. Presently came the peevish whining of machine gun bullets in the air, all about them.
"G. to X. We tried it, and they did their stuff. They made the ether around us look like currant-roll with m. g. bullets. Then radioed we were to follow them as directed, or they'd bring us down. We are now following. Course, as I make it, by sun, about S. W. to S. S. W. Have you any further instructions? Tony, Tony."
"X to G. T. T. T. You are doing well. Stick to them, and use your discretion. Report every half hour as long as you can, and then again as soon after as possible. Try to make out where you are heading for."
(Half an hour later): "G. to X. Still following. They keep shifting course—to baffie us, presumably. So far as I can tell now, about S. W. Tony."
And so, every half hour throughout the day, the reports came through. Their substance was always the same, "Still following," with indications as to course, which varied from S. W. to S. E. X snatched half hours of sleep between the messages, and put one half hour in at his own office, to attend to urgent matters.
At last in the evening, there came a change:
"G. to X. We have just been ordered to come down. We are now below cloud and over sea. No land in sight. It will soon be dark. We have been flying a long time, with only emergency rations. Feeling the strain. Tony."
And then, a little later:
"Have been instructed to show lights, and to fly parallel, and close to G.1313. They don't trust us in the dark. No need to worry, if they only knew. Still no land in sight. Tony."
And again, shortly after:
"Quite dark now. Landing lights below. Instructed to descend. Little idea where we are, but I believe we are landing on an island. After this probably no report for a long time. Tony."
The landing was not easy, but Tommy Hazeldene had a good job of it, and X. O. O. finally came to rest within fifty yards of G.1313.
Both Gun and Tommy were nearly worn out, but as they climbed stiffly out of the machine, the former was conscious of a ring of men surrounding them at some yards distance, and of the gleam of weapons. He tried to make out what sort of a place they had arrived at, but almost all the lights had been extinguished as soon as they landed, and it was difficult to make anything out in the dark.

Smith, Jr., Circleville; Mr. and Mrs. Ted Huston, Stoutsville, and Mr. and Mrs. George Banning, Columbus.

High scoring during the games won prizes for Mrs. Grant, Mrs. Lemuel Weldon, Mrs. Musser, Mr. Grant, Mr. Groom and Mr. Steels.

Star Grange

Organization of a ladies' degree team was planned by Star Grange Tuesday when 35 grangers met at Monroe Township School for the regular session.

C. M. Reid, worthy master, was in charge of the ritualistic opening of grange and led the business meeting which followed.

It was decided that Booster Night of the grange would be September 30 and plans were discussed for the program.

An interesting debate will be included in the program of the next session.

Zelda Sewing Club

Mrs. Orville Trone was elected president of the Zelda Sewing Club Wednesday when the September session was held at the home of Miss Reba Lee, Northridge Road. Mrs. Ralph Crist was assisting hostess at the meeting which was attended by 17 members and one guest, Mrs. Anna Thomas, of Columbus.

The hour after the business meeting was passed in making tea towels for the kitchen of the Methodist Church. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses during the social period.

The next regular meeting will be September 25 with Mrs. N. E. Reichelderfer of East Franklin Street.

Presby-Weds Meet

Outdoor games and a hamburger fry at twilight were delightful features of the Wednesday meeting of the Presby-Weds at Mound City Park, near Chillicothe. Thirty were present for the evening which was concluded with songs around the campfire.

The Rev. and Mrs. Robert T. Kelsey and Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Crites were in charge of the plans.

D. A. R.

Pickaway Plains Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will meet at 2:30 p. m. Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Lee Luellen of Williamsport for the opening session of the fall and winter series of meetings.

Mrs. Blenn R. Bales will discuss D. A. R. Educational Work and Mrs. Charles H. May, chairman of approved schools, will present her work.

Members are reminded to take used clothing for the Crossroads School to this session, also contributions for the school at Tamassee.

Assisting hostesses for the occasion include Mrs. Harry Dunlap, Mrs. Florence Duveneck, Mrs. George Hamman, Jr., Mrs. Russell McDill, Mrs. Harry McGhee and Mrs. Edna Newhouse.

Lutheran Ladies' Society

Mrs. Denny Pickens led the discussion of the missionary topic, "The Future of the Church," at the meeting of the Ladies Society of Trinity Lutheran Church held Wednesday in the parish house.

Sixty members and visitors made up the interested group.

Dr. G. J. Troutman, president, was in the chair, opening the session with group singing and the scripture lesson read from St. Matthew 24.

Three poems read by Mrs. Elmer Wolf and two piano solos by Miss

Birthday Observed

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Clark, Salt-creek Township, entertained recently at their country home at a surprise party honoring their son, Hugh, Jr., on his eighteenth birthday anniversary. He received many useful gifts.

Prior to a wiener roast, the guests joined in playing outdoor games.

Those present were the Misses Helen Heffner, Dorothy Poling, Esther Waliser, Margie Bower, Ruth Mary Crawford, Fred Canter, John Spencer, Ralph Vanfosser, Francis Fraunfelder, Gene Crawford, Wayne Bower, Mr. and Mrs. Kelson Bower, daughter, Ellen, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. Clark, son Hugh, Jr., and daughter Leota Bell.

Personal Shower

A group of friends gathered Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Charles Sterling, 215½ West Mound Street, honoring Mrs. John D. Kirkpatrick, her sister, with a miscellaneous shower.

Games were the diversion of the evening after which the honor guest opened her many choice gifts.

A dessert course was served to Mrs. Charles Essick, Mrs. Gene Davis, Miss Patty Quince, Mrs. Daisy Dumm, Miss Altha Dumm, Mrs. John Essick, Mrs. Frank Briener, Mrs. Marcella Wellington, Mrs. Ray Arledge, Mrs. John Rhodes, Mrs. George G. Ashville Garden Club

Homer Bausum of Little Walnut greatly interested the members of the Ashville Garden Club at its Wednesday meeting with his excellent talk on "Soil and the Need of Plant Food," the well attended session being at the home of Mrs. Harold Bowers of Ashville. Mr. Bausum discussed various soils and told of the different kinds of food needed by many varieties of flowers. He also gave suggestion for winter care of perennial beds, maintaining that sometimes too much protection was more harmful than not enough.

During the business session, it was decided to hold the regular meetings the second Thursday of each month.

Mrs. Whitney Lamb of Commercial Point invited the club to her home for the December tea.

"Old Maids' Club" Holds Reunion After 34 Years

Miss Lillie Van Heyde of Cleveland, formerly of Circleville, was the honored guest Wednesday at a dinner served at 6 p. m. at the "Hurricane," New American Hotel. The affair was a reunion of the "Old Maids' Club," marking the first time all of the members had been together in 34 years.

The club was formed a great many years ago by a group of young women of Circleville who enjoyed hiking, camping and picnics. They chose "Independent Order of Old Maids" as the name of the organization. In 1906, they camped in the small brick house on the David Dunlap farm, Hayesville, during their stay entertaining many friends at the cottage. The Wednesday dinner was the first time the group had been together since that time.

Later the club members enjoyed an evening of reminiscing at the home of Mrs. Charles H. May, who, while not a member of the organization, had been a frequent visitor at the camp.

Those present for the dinner were Miss Van Heyde, Miss Sadie Brunner, Miss Mary Foreman, Miss Rose Murray, Miss Martha Dresbach, Mrs. Eleanor W. Bissell, members, Mrs. Florence S. Renick and Mrs. May, guests.

The unique place cards for the affair had hand-colored reproductions of the old Hayesville house, the work of Miss Murray assisted by Robert Adkins. Gladioli decorated the table set entirely with crystal and silver.

Miss Van Heyde and Mrs. Renick of Cleveland are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bell of North Court Street.

Art Sewing Club

Twelve members of the Art Sewing Club gathered Wednesday for the first fall meeting, Miss Laura Mantle entertaining the group at Sylvia's party home.

Miss Lauragene Cook of Mt. Sterling joined the party for the delightful refreshments served at the close of the informal afternoon.

Mrs. Earl Hoffman, Washington Township, invited the club to meet with her for the October session.

Past Chiefs' Club

More than 15 members enjoyed the delightful meeting of the Past Chiefs' club held Wednesday at Sylvia's party home with Mrs. Frank Davis and Mrs. Ralph Roby, joint hostesses.

Interesting games and an excellent lunch were features of the session which was the first get together of members since last spring.

Saturday Luncheon

BRITISH REVISE DEFENSES, HALT NAZI BOMBERS

ed on its newest scars and occasional delayed action bombs "whooped" spasmodically in various sectors, traffic in the city was disrupted temporarily in certain areas and the pace of the city's activity was definitely slowed down.

But everywhere the same determination to carry on that has marked the whole siege still prevailed.

Londoners were tremendously impressed and heartened by the performance of the anti-aircraft guns during the night and attributed the relative decrease in the bombing to their work and to the efforts of fire brigades, which extinguished hundreds of incendiary blazes in record time.

The fire fighters were particularly effective in the northwestern area and thereby eliminated beacons which could serve to guide the Nazi raiders to London targets.

Herbert Morrison, minister of supply, who examined the damage hinted that men working in fire-lighted target areas would receive special honors.

Raiders Driven Off

This morning, German raiders attempted to attack military objectives on England's northwest coast but were driven off by intense, continuous anti-aircraft fire.

The Nazi planes were forced inland and dropped bombs on two towns where they caused only slight damage, officials declared.

In London during the night defense guns maintained an almost continuous curtain of fire over the city while for nine hours and one minute the German bombers tried to duplicate the pounding they have given Britain's capital in four successive previous night attacks.

Simultaneously British warships and coastal long-range guns hammered German troops and supply ship concentrations on the French side of the English Channel as this besieged nation flung new forces into a mammoth drive against an anticipated German invasion.

The entire British war effort suddenly speeded up within a few hours after Prime Minister Winston Churchill warned that a "heavy, full-scale invasion" might be expected within a week.

The British Air and Home Security Ministries, in a joint communique, stated that the long Nazi night raid against London was "less effective than any since Saturday."

Nevertheless, it was apparent that the raid, which finally ended at 5:36 a. m. (11:36 a. m. EST), had taken a toll in damage and casualties—but less than any of the attacks that began Saturday night.

Debris Searched

This morning, hours after the raiders had vanished, rescue workers were digging through the debris of newly-bombed buildings to save persons trapped beneath in underground shelters.

It was reported that in several other shelters a number of persons had been killed when they were crushed by falling wreckage.

Several bombs fell near a famous London hospital during the night attack, it was revealed and one high-explosive crashed through the watertank and roof atop a newspaper building before exploding. No casualties resulted, however.

This morning in London it appeared that the capital's defenders have found an answer to the German night attacks.

Wednesday morning after the German Tuesday night raid several fires were visible in the London area from a roof-top vantage point on Fleet Street. By this morning an International News Service reporter, surveying the city from the same look-out post at 6 a. m. could not see a single blaze.

All fires which had been started by bombs during the night attack had been brought under control or extinguished and the sheet of anti-aircraft shells had prevented the Nazis from dropping fresh bombs into fires which had been started earlier.

Hear, But Can't See, Raiders

ALTHOUGH these three blind children in the East Grinstead, England, Sunshine Home for Blind Babies can't see the German bombing planes overhead, the roar of their motors and the thunder of bursting bombs are enough to make them cover in fright. The children shown in the British-censored picture are Jane, Jacqueline and John.

HIGHWAY OFFICE PUTTING SCHOOL SIGNS IN STATE

In a letter to George D. McDowell, county school superintendent, Robert S. Beightler, director, state highway department, reported that this year, instead of erecting school traffic signs reading, "School, Speed Limit 20 Miles an Hour" the state department is placing signs 500 feet from the school reading "School Zone, 500 feet."

Temporary signs, however, reading "School, Speed Limit 20 Miles an Hour" may be secured free of charge by those schools making such a request who agree to maintain the signs and see that they are placed on the highway only during periods of recess and at opening and closing hours while children are going to and coming from school.

Superintendent McDowell said that he had referred the matter to the local school superintendents for their consideration.

FLAMES BREAK OUT AS BRITISH HIT NAZI CITIES

Berlin Admits Casualties As Metropolis, Hamburg, Other Centers Are Raided

ed, seriously or slightly injured. The total casualties have not yet been ascertained.

"Strong anti-aircraft fire and quick air raid precaution action as well as discipline of the population prevented extensive damages in Berlin."

The air raid alarm in Berlin last night from 12:45 to 2:15 a. m. (5:45 to 7:15 p. m. EST Wednesday).

An official statement describing this attack said:

"The Royal Air Force during the night again bombed non-military objectives in Germany. Some planes were forced to turn back by heavy anti-aircraft fire. They jettisoned their bombs."

"One factory building was hit in North Berlin and some bombs were found in the Tiergarten (a large park in central Berlin)."

"Incendiary bombs were dropped on residential and business buildings in the center of the city, causing small fires which were quickly extinguished."

Prior to these British raids, it was announced, German dive-bombers swept deep into the Thames Estuary district, setting six freighters and one destroyer on fire.

Despite a hail of anti-aircraft fire, the German planes swooped down on a large convoy of 20 merchant ships and several warcraft, destroying nearly one-third of the freighters.

This attack followed a fresh series of raids on London's docks in which further crippling blows were claimed to have been struck at the commercial heart of the British Empire.

In addition to the London raids, German authorities said, military targets in Liverpool and others in southern England were "bombed effectively."

Horse racing has been suspended in England. This naturally upsets a lot of Britishers who must now figure out some other way of losing their money.

A hard sneeze, 'tis said, has a muzzle velocity of 150 feet per second. This puts a cold germ in the same class with a Stuka bomber.

Hitler May Be Perched For Big Bid

alarmist. He said yesterday that the next week would be the most crucial in England's history—comparable to the days of Nelson and Drake. Less official but equally dependable sources confirm that everything is now ready across the channel for the supreme Nazi bid.

It seems reasonably certain that the German plan is not going according to the programmatic schedule that characterized Hitler's conquest of the Lowlands and France.

There are many persons who believe that he originally did not intend to smash London and embarked on the furious raids which began last Saturday only because his plans for early invasion had been delayed by the work of the Royal Air Force. One of Europe's favorite legends, probably founded on truth, is that Hitler's main ambition is to dine on eggs and vegetables in Buckingham Palace. Yet one of his bombs has already knocked a piece out of the palace and more may fall if the attacks continue.

May Be Consolation

Destruction of London might be regarded as a consolation German victory if invasion failed or became too long delayed. But if it is now true that perfected anti-aircraft defenses make such destruction really improbable, the Fuehrer can only continue his unbroken string of victories by launching the invasion without delay and bring a new surge of pride to Berliners who are bewildered if not stunned beyond belief by disclosure that Britain can bring the war to their doors.

HAVE YOU ever been squeezed three times in the same hand? Well, it doesn't happen often. When it does, the declarer may have done some very beautiful work, or possibly he merely ran out his winning tricks in the regular way and the squeezes occurred because of the way the cards happened to be situated. But suppose one made the squeezes possible by your own mistake in defense. Then how would you feel?

West led the heart 2, the 10, and the K. Declarer went to dummy, with the club K and needed the diamond Q to the K. West now considered that he had won more winning tricks in his hand, one in spades, two in hearts and one in diamonds. If he had led the spade K back, he would have taken at least a couple of them, but he made the worst possible return, the heart 4, which South took with the 9.

Four clubs were then run. West discarded two spades and his heart J, for squeeze number one, then on the last club tossed a diamond, thus being squeezed out of his only trick in that suit. South then cashed the diamond A, J and 9, the last of these squeezing West a third time. He was now down to his two high spades and his heart A. If he threw the heart, the Q would win. So he discarded one of the two spade honors. Declarer then went to the spade A, dropping the K, and took the final trick with the spade 10, making an unbid small slam.

Light Signal Drill to End Tiger Practice for Irish

Columbus Rosary Eleven To Inva'd Red And Black Grid Field Friday Evening

BLACK LISTS STARTERS

Season Ticket Sale Goes On Until Game Time; Band To Make Appearance

Circleville football fans were waiting Thursday for the hours to drag along until 8 o'clock Friday evening when Coach Roy Black will take the wraps off his 1940 platoon with Columbus Rosary, coached by Bud Keefe, providing the opposition.

A light signal drill was on the schedule for Thursday afternoon, the coach planning to have a no-contact session, hoping that all his boys will be in tip-top shape for the lid-lifter, which, if the weather continues favorable, is expected to draw a large crowd. The only boy on the squad who is not ready for action is Carl Eby, right halfback on the 1939 team, who is recovering from a severely sprained ankle. Eby has been scrimmaging the last two nights, though, and if needed will probably see some action. Bob Kline, second team fullback, was limping after Wednesday's drill, his ankle being twisted, but he said he was ready to play. Nolan Sims, a guard and tackle, was out for a day or two with an ouchy leg, but he is ready.

Rosary, carried away a 13-6 victory last year when it came here, and from all indications the Columbus Irish will be strong again despite loss of several boys who were keys in last year's team. Finneran, fullback, and Kappas, quarterback, are expected to do the bulk of this year's offensive work.

Lineup Indicated

Coach Black indicated Thursday that his starting lineup would be George Trego and Paul Jackson at ends, John Sabine and Russ Liston at tackles, Jack Crawford and Clark Martin at guards, Bob Brown at center, Frank Geib at quarterback, Marvin Jenkins and Jim Moorehead at halfbacks, and Joe Staley at fullback.

In this lineup are four seniors, Brown, Martin, Liston and Jenkins, six juniors, Sabine, Crawford, Jackson, Geib, Moorehead and Staley and one sophomore, Trego.

The second team as it was lined up Wednesday evening included Smallwood and Carr, ends; Zaenglein and Wolfe, tackles; Sims and Brintlinger, guards; Beck, center; Bob Moon, quarterback; Callahan and Anderson, halfbacks, and Kline, fullback.

The first team would average around 158 in the line with the backs touching about 155 pounds.

Ticket Sale Continues

Season ticket sales have been conducted by Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs, the result of the contest not yet being known. The sale will continue until game time Friday. Season tickets entitle the holders to places in a reserved section on the south side of the field. Bleachers have not yet been placed on the north side, school officials being unable to find any suitable stands. An effort was being made Thursday to obtain a public address system.

Professor C. F. Zaenglein and his high school band will appear at the field and there is a possibility that the outfit will drill between halves.

SEARCH FOR RIGHT HALF GOES ON AT OHIO STATE

COLUMBUS, Sept. 12—Finding a dependable right halfback for Ohio State University's football team occupied the attention of Buckeye coaches today.

Tom Kinkade, Toronto junior, was at the post in most of yesterday's practice. He alternated, however, with Paul Sweeney, Cleveland sophomore, but indications were experience gained last year would give Kinkade the starting call.

The other three backfield posts are capably filled by Captain Jimmy Langhurst, Jim Strausbaugh and Don Scott.

Coach Francis Schmidt said the Bucks' first scrimmage may be held late today as the squad is in the pink of condition.

KASEYS BEATEN, BUT BIRDS DROP IN 1 TO 0 JOUST

COLUMBUS, Sept. 12—Despite Kansas City's apparent desire to lose the American Association pennant, the Blues remained three and one-half games in front of the league pack today.

The Blues obligingly lost to St. Paul, 3 to 1 yesterday, but second-place Columbus, just as obliging, dropped a 1 to 0 decision to Louisville and a chance to advance on the league leaders. The AA season closes Sunday.

Bill Swift was the Kansas City jinx while Charley Wagner drew the respect of the Red Birds. Swift, St. Paul hurler, allowed the Blues only five hits. Wagner shut out the Birds with three safeties although his shortstop, Woody Williams, got all his teams three safeties off the deliveries of Melton and Barrett.

Third-place Minneapolis, meanwhile, was moving to within a half-game of second place with a double victory over Milwaukee, 11 to 8 and 7 to 6. In the only other league contest, Indianapolis defeated Toledo 14 to 3.

REDS COP PAIR, GO TO GOTHAM FOR NEW SERIES

NEW YORK, Sept. 12—Nine full games in front of the National League, the Cincinnati Reds moved into New York today for a series with the Giants.

The Reds virtually clinched the senior loop's flag for the second successive year by defeating Boston twice, 8 to 0 and 3 to 1. Paul Derringer and Bucky Walters, the Reds' pitching ace, were credited with the nineteenth victory of the season for each.

Walters hurled the opener and allowed the lowly Bees but four safeties. Goodman started off the redleg scoring in the first inning by cracking out a homer.

In the nightcap, Derringer pitched ed six-hit ball. His teammates had to come from behind, however, to score the win. The Bees scored in the opening frame and the Reds tied it up in the fifth. Two more runs in the ninth sewed up the game.

Ether Junior Thompson or "No-hit" Johnny Vander Meer was to hurl for the league leaders today.

HEROES AND GOATS

The Heroes: Ernie Bonham, Yankees, who outpitched Bob Feller, Indians, ace; Elden Auker, Browns, who pitched five hit shut-out over Athletics; Dizzy Dean, Cubs, who made successful comeback against Dodgers; Bucky Walters and Paul Derringer, Reds, each of whom won 19th game against Bees.

The Goats: Red Ruffing, Yankees, who was driven to showers by Indians in second game; Cliff Melton, Giants, who was slaughtered by Cards in first game and Harry Gumbert, Giants, who tossed ninth inning home run ball to give Cards second game.

DETROIT IN TOP SPOT AS YANKS, INDIANS DIVIDE

Boston Thumped; Bonham On Top In Duel With Bob Feller; Smith Wins

By Pat Robinson
NEW YORK, Sept. 12—Despite a bombardment from irate Cleveland fans, the New York Yankees will gladly bear testimony today that it is much more pleasant to live in the United States than in Europe.

While Londoners were being subjected to a rain of death from TNT bombs, the Yanks were being "bombed" by overripe tomatoes, lemons and bananas.

Despite the "bombing," the Yanks managed to get an even split on the day and are now half a game behind the Indians and a game back of the Tigers who moved back into first place by knocking over the Red Sox.

All three teams have lost the same number of games and the half game difference among them is due to the fact that the Tigers have played and won one more than the Indians and two more than the Yanks.

The Yanks move into the Tigers' lair for a three-game tussle starting today while the Indians take on the heavy-hitting Red Sox.

For a moment yesterday the Yanks for the first time this year enjoyed the sensation of leading the league. That was immediately after they had taken the first game and before Detroit had beaten Boston.

Bonham Over Feller

The Yanks took the opener, 3-1, as Rookie Ernie Bonham outpitched Bob Feller, the Cleveland ace. With Feller beaten, the Yanks had a glorious opportunity in the second game to put the crusher on the Indians for good, but Red Ruffing wasn't equal to the opportunity and the Indians won, 5-3, in a game halted by darkness in the sixth.

His buddies staged Ruffing to a two-run lead against Al Smith, but the big redhead blew higher than a kite in the second when his own and Dahlgren's error helped the Tribe to four unearned runs.

Meanwhile the rampaging Tigers were teeing off on a flock of Joe Cronin's alleged pitchers. The Tigers pounded out 18 hits including five for old Charley Gehring and Hank Greenberg's 31st homer, the total resulting in an 11-7 decision.

Elden Auker whitewashed the Athletics with five hits, the Browns winning, 3-0, and the White Sox slaughtered Dutch Leonard to give Johnny Rigney an easy 7-4 margin over the Senators.

The Reds virtually put the National League pennant in the bag by taking a pair from the Bees while the Dodgers were dropping two to the Cubs.

Bucky Walters turned in a four hit shutout in the opener and won, 8-0, for his 19th victory. Paul Derringer, the Reds' other mighty right-hander then gave the Bees only six hits as he, too, turned in his 19th win, 3 to 1.

Old Diz Winner

Passeau took the first game for the Cubs, 8-5, and then a wild chorus of joy greeted old Dizzy Dean as he returned from exile in the Texas League to pitch the Cubs to a 3-2 triumph in the nightcap. Old Diz gave just six hits and had the game well in hand at all times.

The Cards further entrenched

Welcome Back, Mr. Diz Dean

BACK with the Chicago Cubs again after a brief tenure with Tulsa in the Texas League, Jerome (Dizzy) Dean, once star pitcher of the National League, is shown being welcomed by Zeke Bonura, left, and Bob Collins, center.

Ohio University Expects To Develop Power-House

ATHENS, O., Sept. 12—Only once in sixteen years has Don Peden's Ohio University teams failed to win a majority of their games. This season probably won't see that long record broken—in fact the Bobcats are looking forward to another great year.

Led by all-Ohio quarterback Dan Risaliti, of Canton, the Bobcats—fifty strong—are working twice daily in preparation for the season's opener on Sept. 28 against the vaunted Youngstown College Penguins.

The grid hopefuls include thirteen lettermen from the 1939 squad which won six straight games after dropping the first three struggles.

Emphasizing the anticipated strength of the team, Coach Peden has indicated that three or four sophomores have a "better

QUESTION OF NEW RACE RECORD IS IN DOUBT

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 12—Whether Greyhound, holder of many world's trotting records, established another record in a mile race against time at the Kentucky state fairgrounds yesterday was a much debated question among local track officials today.

Greyhound, with the Veteran Sep Palin holding the reins, raced twice around the half-mile track in the official time of 2:00 1/2. Some clockers caught the 8-year-old champion in 2 minutes flat.

The performance was called a new world's record by state fair officials who said the old record was set by Winnipeg in 2:04 1/2. However, the records show that Greyhound in other races against the clock established marks ranging from 1:55 1/4 at Lexington, Ky., two years ago to 1:57 1/4 at Goshen, N. Y.

Not open to dispute was the fact that Greyhound did set a new Louisville track record.

themselves in the first division and the Giants in the second flight by hammering Terry's tumbler, 7-4 and 3-2. Shoun and McGee were the winning operatives.

And the Pirates joyfully slammed the Phils for the 11th straight time, 9 to 3. Of course, everybody slams the Phils but the Pirates seemed to do it with more relish than the others.

MANDAMUS ACTION SEEKS TO OPEN ORIENT SCHOOL

PARENTS OF 12 CHILDREN FILE COURT PETITION

Judge Terwilliger Decides
On Monday At 9 A. M.
For Hearing

SCIOTO MUST SHOW CAUSE

Debate Over Enrollment To Be Determined; Minimum
Of 15 Imperative

Controversy between the Scioto Township Board of Education and dissatisfied parents of Orient school children broke into a court battle late Tuesday when parents of 12 Orient pupils filed a petition with the Common Pleas court, asking that the court command the Scioto Township Board of Education to reopen the school.

Immediately after the petition was filed asking for the writ of mandamus Judge Meeker Terwilliger filed an alternative writ, demanding the Scioto Township Board either to reopen the Orient school or show cause for not doing so by Monday. Hearing of the case is scheduled before Judge Terwilliger Monday at 9 a. m.

Eight persons signed the petition against the Scioto Township board. They are Paul Lewis, George W. Shoaf, Lonnie Meadows, Dorothy Elson, K. K. Kreider, Everett Walters, Frank Boyd and Tena Gorman. The signers claim authority to reopen the school under section 7730 of the Ohio General Code, which provides that upon petition filed with the local board of education between May 1 and August 1 of any year, signed by parents or guardians of 12 children between the ages of 7 and 15 living in the district and enrolled in school, whose residences are nearer to the suspended school than any other school, asking that the school be reopened, the local board shall reopen the school.

The petitioners maintain that they have fulfilled all the requirements necessary for the reopening of their school. The Scioto Township Board claims that under a different section of the Ohio law, section 7684, it has authority to assign pupils, that section providing that boards of education may make such an assignment of youth as their respective districts to the schools established by them as in their opinion best will promote the interests of education in their districts.

The controversy arose when the Scioto Township board, maintaining that the State Department of Education had refused to grant the Orient School any funds to operate because of its enrollment, voted to assign Orient pupils to the school building at Commercial Point. Orient parents, opposing the action of the board, are sending the pupils to the vacated Orient school building, saying that they will continue to do so until the board opens their school and provides them with a teacher. Orient people claim that the nearly 40 pupils are affected by the controversy.

In a recent communication, E. N. Dietrich, state director of education, informed the Scioto Township board that the state department would approve no funds for the Orient school until it can prove that it has an average daily attendance of 15. Average daily attendance at the school last year was nine. When it has been proved that pupils enrolled at Orient number more than 15, state funds will be granted on request of the Scioto board, Dietrich said.

BRITAIN'S NAVY FILL BIG TASK

Ships Smashing Nazi Moves Toward Concentration Of Troop Transports

LONDON, Sept. 12—The British navy today was engaged in a major effort to smash German continental preparations for an anticipated invasion of Britain.

Naval guns blazed away in a terrific barrage coordinated with the fire of coastal guns in a reported shelling of a huge Nazi convoy off the French coast in the vicinity of Boulogne.

Port facilities and shipping movements have been blasted by British warships with devastating results, according to an admiralty communiqué which gave only a terse summary of the details late last night, adding:

"Further details cannot be given without disclosing information useful to the enemy."

A violent artillery duel between British and German coastal guns was reported simultaneously. The English guns opened up on a Nazi convoy after German Big Berthas on the opposite coast opened up a barrage to cover a Nazi convoy of 12 "fair-sized ships" near the Cap Gris Nez area and making toward Boulogne.

Hinting at further action of British warships in a desperate effort to smash any Nazi attempt at invasion of Britain's shore, the admiralty said "strong repeated actions are being taken by our naval light forces against German shipping movements, ports and shipping concentrations."

"These operations," the statement added, "have inflicted losses upon the enemy as well as damaged port facilities which would be vital to him in the event of an attempt to invade England."

FERGUSON ASKS FOR COPIES OF RELIEF ROSTER

COLUMBUS, Sept. 12—The state relief situation was again called to the attention of Ohio voters today as State Auditor Joseph T. Ferguson threatened to issue subpoenas unless county auditors and relief directors comply with his demand that they submit lists of relief clients.

Ferguson, who is seeking a second four-year term, wrote the local officials after State Welfare Director Charles L. Sherwood advised them "there is no valid reason" why such lists should be turned over to the auditor.

In his letter to the local officials, Sherwood asserted "we have no idea for what purpose this list is to be used. Ferguson, in turn, informed relief authorities he needed the lists to check accounts."

"It is quite evident," said the state auditor, "that under the duties imposed upon me, as auditor of state, I am complying specifically with existing law, which is contrary to the implication attempted by Mr. Sherwood when he states that it is 'contrary to the spirit of the law.'"

"He was very careful not to say contrary to law."

Ferguson concluded his letter

by saying that therefore you may consider this a notification that if at any time I request the records of your office, such records shall be produced voluntarily or I may subpoena same by court order, as provided for in the Ohio statutes."

SPEAKER FLAYS WILLKIE AT DEMOCRATIC MEETING

Labeling Republican Presidential Nominee Wendell Willkie "a tobacco-chewing roughneck" during his school days in Indiana, Ray Cook, speaking before the Pickaway County Democratic Club in the Common Pleas court room of the court house, opened the organization's campaign.

Cook attacked Willkie as a backer of "Economic Royalists" and quoted him as saying before the Economic Club of New York in February, 1935 "I do not like to make personal reference, but I want to say to you that no duty has ever come into my life, even in the service of my country, which has so appealed to my sense of social obligations, patriotism, and love of mankind, as this, my obligation to say and do what I can for the preservation of public utilities, privately owned."

President Byron Eby, in charge of the meeting, announced that another meeting would be held within the next couple of weeks. A definite date has not yet been set.

HALF MILLION TO HEAR WILLKIE IN TRIP TO CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Sept. 12—More than 500,000 persons will be in the throngs expected to greet Wendell L. Willkie tomorrow when the Republican presidential candidate makes a 24-hour visit to Chicago, local GOP officials estimated today.

The Republican standard bearer will speak at four outdoor meetings in the city during the day but the greatest crowds are expected to line the streets in the downtown loop district when Willkie and his party will tour the area in automobiles in the noon hour.

Willkie's rapid swing through the city will include speeches to workers at the stockyards, the South Chicago steel district, the west town industrial area, and to a Negro rally in a south side ball park.
